

Co-branding partner

Our main co-branding design incorporates the PandaDoc logo - please make sure to allocate sufficient space by following the margins and guidelines provided below. Choose the orientation that works best for the specific use case.

Vertical

In order to stay consistent in our external and internal communication we need to adhere to The partner logo is placed below the PandaDoc logo, separated by a straight horizontal line and margins from both sides.

Horizontal

The partner logo is placed to the right of the PandaDoc logo, separated by a straight vertical line and margins on both sides.

Incorrect use of logo

When co-branding, it's important to follow these rules to ensure maximum legibility and brand attribution for both the PandaDoc brand and our partners.
